Chloe,

I haven't heard anything. Can you tell me when I should expect a response?

thanks,

Tracy

Office (“Your Office”). During settlement negotiations of the case captioned Chicago Justice Project v. Cook County State’s Attorneys’ Office, 15 CH 18147 (the “Case”), you advised that we could contact you regarding CJP’s data requests to Your Office.

To facilitate settlement of the Case, Your Office provided CJP with various data from Your Office regarding felony crimes. CJP agreed to dismiss the Case as a gesture of good faith, even though it had not yet reviewed all data provided by Your Office. During our ongoing review of the data provided by Your Office, we have identified that approximately 170 fields and tables of the database that appear empty or deleted. These fields are detailed in the attached spreadsheet.

Please confirm that these fields are not populated in your database?. Or, if the fields were redacted before being produced to CJP, please provide the reason why they were redacted.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration. If it would be helpful to discuss this matter by phone, please let me know.
